Autumn Term Issue 8

Date: 10.11.2016

Headteacher's Weekly News

Creativity week is upon us and the children are doing some amazing work in their classes. Some year groups have also been out on a trip as part of this week and their behaviour has been amazing. Well done to everyone! We look forward to seeing many parents at our Gallery Events which will be held in the small hall after school on the next two Tuesdays.

The weather is turning much colder, please ensure that all children come to school with their coats. It is important that they have them with them to keep warm during playtimes and lunchtimes.

Friday 19th November 2016 is Children in Need day. The school will be supporting this with a non-uniform day. On this day the children may come into school, not in uniform, as long as they have brought in a £1 donation. This money will go to our school charity which is Oxfam. This is a charity which is helping Children in Need across the world.

Book of Honour

1J: Adriel: For such a positive attitude at school.

1S: Elias: For super reading last week.

2C: Rejbir: For listening carefully in the class and always tries to contribute to class discussions

2W: Whole Class: for a super first week back from half term.

3C: Aarani: For always smiling and being friendly.

3RW: Johannes: For being helpful around the classroom

4M: Keren: For settling in nicely into 4M and getting involved in activities straight away

4H: Hakeem: For being mature and showing responsibility

5G: Breyden: Writing a great newspaper report on the Viking invasion at Lindisfarne.

5H: Yara: Excellent enthusiasm for Science Numeracy and reading questions carefully! Well done!

5L: Jack: For a very persuasive advert, encouraging people to visit his winter wonderland! Good Work!

6J: Sebastian: For a great understanding of the sequence of a pelican crossing, explaining it really well to the class.

6V: Lilly : Always working hard in all subjects and going the extra mile.

6A: Laura: For wonderful Literacy work in both comprehensions and extended writing, making her work a joy to read!
