Autumn Term Issue 14

Date: 04.01.2017

Headteacher's Weekly News

Welcome back to the start of the Spring Term. I hope that everyone had a good break.

It was wonderful to see the children coming into school this morning looking so keen to be back and ready to work. The children have already settled into their routines and have completed some great work.

What a fabulous start!

This will be another busy term. It's not long now until our Year 4 children go to Kench Hill, this is always an exciting trip. Coming up this term we also have Investigations Week, Book Week, Book Character day and the Easter Egg and Easter Bonnet competitions. Keep checking on the website as photos of these events are displayed on there.

Best Attendance and Punctuality of the Autumn Term 2016

Well done 2C & 4H who had the highest attendance for last term

Attendance is important, every day counts! It is vital children are in school on time

Book of Honour

1J: Negen: For a brilliant performance in our Nativity.
