Headteacher's Weekly News

It was really lovely to see so many of you at our Investigation Week Gallery on Tuesday. It was an amazing opportunity for the children to share with you the fabulous work and experiences that they had last week. I do hope you got the opportunity to see some of the sporting/fitness inventions that the Junior children came up with – their ideas were truly amazing! The T-Shirt designs that the infant children did were also really inspiring. It was another successful week.

Keep a look out for some of the great events that will be coming to Barnfield soon. It is not long now until Book Week – I know that some children are already planning their costumes for Book Character Day!

I also can't believe that it is almost half term again! We finish on Friday at 3.10pm as normal and we are back again on Monday the 20th February at 8.55am. I wish you all a great half term!

Attendance Fact

Being on time:

- * Gets the day off to a good start
- * Sets positive patterns for the future
- * Helps your child to make the most of their learning
- * Helps children to develop a sense of responsibility both for themselves and for others

Punctuality Matters!

Absent Children

Parents are expected to call each day their child is absent from school.

Please call before 10am to let us know what is wrong with your child

If you have a hospital or doctor letter please send a copy in when your child returns or a letter to explain why they were absent.

Parking

When dropping and collecting your children from school please could all parents and carers think about our local residents. Please do not park or block their driveways even for a short amount of time. Parking is very limited within the local area but it is important that we show consideration for our neighbours.
