Headteacher's Weekly News

Friday is the first of our Fundraising events, it is Jeans Day! This year the School Council has voted to support 'Guide Dogs for the Blind' therefore all the money that we raise will go towards supporting this charity.

This means that on Friday the children must come to school with their Barnfield jumpers, shirts and ties (for the junior children) however, they may wear their jeans and sensible footwear (e.g. trainers). Those children who come dressed in their jeans will need to bring in £1 which will go towards our charity. In assembly on Friday the children will be learning more about our school charity and learn exactly what our fundraising efforts will go towards.

Attendance and Punctuality

Well done xx who had the best attendance last week
