

Aspiring Authors

Are you an aspiring author? Do you want to improve your writing skills and writing stamina in a range of styles?

Then Author's Club might be the right club for you!

The club will be led by Miss Parr every Thursday from 3.30-4.15pm. We will look at a new author every week and focus on how they use language, structure and other features in their writing. We will then apply it to our own independent writing. The club will run from 13.1.21 until the end of term and children will be expected to attend every session to get the full benefit of the writing course.

We are going to study the work of authors such as J.K Rowling, Maria Parr, Terry Pratchett and Malorie Blackman.

Ready, set, write!

Sign up from Monday 29th December on Arbor.

Places will be confirmed by Miss Parr
